Principal report

Tim Hazlett

- Second semester has started.
- Study will be done by a Wisconsin firm relating to size and growth.
- Results of study done in early spring.
- If the study shows a new school is needed, it would go to bond issue.
- If bond doesn't pass for new school, next step to redesign boundaries.
- The potential for a 4th high school is strong, especially with land donated by Sanford.
- RHS will be up over 2300 students.
- Will wait to see population and staffing needs to determine if schedule change is needed.
- Could possibly add a class at 7:00 am or 8th hour/period class or add 11:00 lunch.
- Open enrollment has been closed for over a month.
- No classroom space is available.

New Business

- By-laws and Tax update
Meeting with Non-profit Specialist, Lori at Eide & Bailey.
Recommendation has been made to form a new "successor" organization.
This would require new By-laws, Tax ID and file to be 501c(3) organization.
Cost would be approximately $5000 to form new organization and file required papers.
- We are in need of a new Celebration Chair, as our current one has a senior and will be finished at Roosevelt.
The Celebration Chair organizes Signing Day, State Championships etc.
Anyone with questions could talk with Polly Rames.

Activity Report: Off Season

Boys Soccer - Michele Cork

Activity Report: Some of the boys continue to lift at RHS and train with their club teams. A new head coach has not been hired yet.

Boys Tennis -

Activity Report:

Cheer Competitive - Michelle Krier

Activity Report: Cheer is proud of the senior teammates that were recognized Friday at halftime of the boys basketball game for National Women and Girls in Sports. Cheer hosted a cheer camp on January 20 for kids in grades K-8. They had a great turnout and was fun to see the campers perform at the basketball game that day. The school has posted an opening for an assistant competitive cheer coach. Tryouts are Apr 13 and 14 for the team that will compete during the fall 2018 school year.

Cheer Sideline - Michelle Krier

Activity Report: Cheer hosted a cheer camp on January 20 for kids in grades K-8. They had a great turnout and was fun to see the campers perform at the basketball game that day. Sideline squads for basketball are enjoying their season cheering on the teams. Squads are looking great.
